Memorial Day Cookout
Monday, May 31 – noon

Our traditional cookout on Memorial Day ushers in the summer and the prospects of eating outside on the patio. We'll feast on finger-lickin' ribs, hamburgers, hotdogs, and all the fixins'!

Van Drives
Mondays, May 3 & 17 – 3 p.m.

We're off in the Waveny van! Our first trip, according to resident wishes, will be "Around the Town." Barbara is working on a route that will show off some early history of Canaan Parish, modern and antique homes, parks and local landmarks. The route for the 17th will be decided later in the month. Please sign up on the bulletin board to reserve a seat on the van.

Meditation – in the library
Mondays & Thursdays – 11:30 a.m.

These five to ten minutes of guided imagery sessions serve to help promote a more relaxed and centered way of being. It's amazing how this practice can relieve tension and promote renewed energy.

Short Stories
Tuesdays at 3 p.m. – in Library

We've read over 120 short stories, one a week, with authors ranging from Truman Capote, Ernest Hemingway, Willa Cather, William Faulkner, Edgar Allen Poe, O'Henry, Guy de Maupassant, and so many others! It's never too late to join this group of readers – our discussions are thoughtful, often surprising and oh so interesting!

Resident Meetings
Wednesdays at 11:30 a.m.

Our weekly resident meetings offer an opportunity for Katarina, Terri and Barbara to announce any pertinent information about life at The Inn as well as a chance for residents to speak up.

One-Act Plays – 5/3 at 3 p.m.
New Canaan Town Players/TV

Tea with a Twist
Wednesdays at 3 p.m.

We all look forward to these Wednesday afternoon teas – not just for women! And the "twist" offers an opportunity for folks to chime in with their thoughts on the designated subject.

Collage Cards
Thursday, May 6 – 3 p.m.

Come down to the library and bring a pair of scissors. We're going to make collage greeting cards!

Catholic Mass
Sunday, May 9 – 11:30 a.m.

Father Robert Kinnally, from St. Aloysius, is coming to The Inn and offering Mass.

Writers Workshop
Mondays, May 10 & 24 – 3 p.m.

We're relishing hearing the stories, vignettes and poems – little treasures of memories and creative efforts by our group of writers. All residents are welcomed – even if you haven't put pencil to paper. Just listening is worth coming down to the library! Barbara will type up all work.

Floats on the Patio
Thursday, May 13 – 3 p.m.

Join us for root beer floats on the dining room patio. Yum!

Look for the Silver Lining!
Thursday, May 27 – 3 p.m.

Our singers' musical salute celebrating the sunny side of life: blue skies, traveling along and singin' a song with hearts full of joy and gladness - ain't we got fun!

Crafts with Marta
Saturdays, May 15 & 29 – 1:15 p.m.

Marta comes up with fun craft projects. Join her after lunch and let your creative juices flow.

Tissue Paper Flowers
Thursday, May 20 – 3 p.m.

Let's make red, white and blue flowers for Memorial Day Décor.

Learn New Solitaire Games
Friday, May 7 – 2:30 p.m.

Bananagrams
Friday, May 21 – 2:20 p.m.

Barbara will teach you solitaire games and have a brush-up with Bananagrams.
